CODES:
#N=name #E=She/He #e=she/he #H=His/Her #h=his/her #m=him/her #b=boy/girl #s=herself/himself — e.g. #E is an enthusiastic #b.
#?=type any text later — e.g. #N achieved #?% in the exam.
#yourListNameHere=select from your own drop-down list later — e.g. #N's work on #ProjectList was excellent. Create drop-down list

Ooops! detective says: You've used an upper-case She/He (#E) in the middle of a sentence? Use #e for she/he.

#N has had an excellent year. Well done #N!

#N has made steady progress throughout the term.

#N has had a mixed term but there are signs of improvement in #h behaviour of late.

#N is an enthusastic #b. I am very pleased with the contribution #E has made over the year.

Bad spelling is underlined

#E is the code for an upper-case She/He - the Ooops! Detective immediately spots that it's been used in the middle of a sentence & highlights the error

You type or paste comments into the form below including special codes like #N for name. Codes are automatically replaced when you use the statements in reports.
